

Danville Concert Association Program Advertising

Our season kicking off this fall will present another array of high-caliber performances and we would be proud to have your advertising support. Your ad will appear before our patrons in all of our programs; you will receive season tickets; and you will be invited to our post-performance receptions. Also, if you would like to learn more about sponsoring (or co-sponsoring) a performance or reception, we look forward to talking with you. We plan to print programs for our season one time, and will reuse them for all performances. So, please, get your copy in to Kim at Demont Design by September 23. Thank you for supporting the arts in Danville.
